The Need For Assistance

Entertainers represent a different category of taxpayer as income is usually irregular and volatile

Consequently, their tax and accounting affairs require very careful planning and control.

The Need For Advice

Our clients tend to look to us for advice and support in the following principal areas:

- Financial advice/management consultancy
- Minimising tax/VAT liabilities
- Dealing with HM Revenue & Customs, especially when liabilities are disputed
- Bookkeeping and advising on the adoption of best accounting practice
- The use of companies
- Preparation of budgets and cash flow statements
- Establishing pension schemes and similar tax-efficient arrangements.

Tax And Financial Planning

Some important areas include:

- Choice of accounting date
- Allowable expenses and capital allowances
- Spreading of income
- The use of losses
- The involvement of spouse or civil partner in your business
- Consideration of domicile and residence
- Income received from abroad
- Working abroad and overseas taxation
- The use of trusts
- The structuring of engagements on favourable self-employed basis.

How Citroen Wells Can Help You

In addition to providing you with assistance and advice in all the areas mentioned:

- We keep up to date with changes in legislation and case law and Revenue practice
- Our experience in advising entertainers enables us to deal quickly and effectively with various situations which may be new to you.

The Way We Work

The Citroen Wells philosophy is to provide a professional service to all clients, irrespective of income level. Each one can count on the same standards of attention, which we achieve by:

- Adopting a unique and individual approach to your needs - effectively tailoring our services to your requirements
- Maintaining close contact with you, your bankers and your other professional advisers and reporting to you regularly
- Being at the end of a telephone and ready at short notice to attend meetings at any location, either in the UK or overseas
- Making full use of modern technology and passing on the benefits to you
- Ensuring that you always receive personal attention from at least one - and often two - of our friendly partners and a dedicated team, all of whom offer specialist advice and assistance
- Consulting you with regard to your objectives and assisting you as part of your overall strategy
- Responding promptly and effectively to all requests for advice and assistance and providing service at a reasonable cost
- Periodically taking a fresh look at your affairs to ensure that they are receiving the close attention they deserve and seeing if new strategies need to be developed.

What Will It Cost

This is really up to you because we make our living by selling our time, skill and experience. But since we have acquired that experience over a number of years and understand the needs of our clients we charge reasonable fees for our services.

In particular:

- Initial discussions are free
- We always ensure that our fees remain competitive as our ultimate aim is to provide value for money
- For certain services - for example: bookkeeping, payroll, preparation of management accounts - we can discuss your requirements and agree a fixed fee in advance for any given period
- In other cases we would assess, with your help, the extent of our likely involvement in any particular matter and provide you with an estimate of our fees, thus enabling you to budget for your professional costs.
